*InterCare Community Health Network
Bangor, MI*

"I started coming here 15 years ago; I didn't have a dentist and my doctor referred me here," said Emma Wilburn, mother of Kenneth, 7 years, and Betty, 4 years. Kenneth and Betty are now also patients at InterCare Community Health Network in Bangor, Michigan. "They make me and my kids comfortable, they are kind, nice, and keep us smiling. Kenneth will let them give him shots, do anything," said Emma. "We won't go to any other dentist. It means a lot to keep my kids comfortable and I will stay here as long as my dentist does."
